

CH-27 Hazardous Materials
Management & Ch-34
Environmental Management &
Laws
Homework Answers

01

SARA Title III is also known as:

A. Employee Right to Know Act

B. 29 CFR 1910.1200

C. HAZWOPER

D. Community Right to Know Act

02

CERCLA stands for:

- A. Comprehensive Environmental Remediation, Compensation Limitation Act
- B. Code of Environmental Remediation, Conservation, and Liability Act
- C. Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation, and Liability Act
- D. Community Emergency Response, Compensation, and Liability Act

03

What type of emergencies would you expect to find at a TSD site?

TSD: Treatment, Storage and Disposal

A. Those involving hazardous substances

B. Those involving trash or rubbish

C. Those dealing with fire and similar life-threatening conditions

D. Those involving gas cylinders

04

The key element of RCRA designed to track hazardous waste from "cradle to grave" is the:

- A. Statute of limitations
- B. Criminal liability
- C. Manifest
- D. Ultimate disposal site

05

Training requirements under RCRA are satisfied by:

- A. Attending biennial training sessions
- B. Independent readings and self-certification
- C. Attending OSHA Hazard Communication or OSHA Hazardous Waste Operations and Emergency Response (HAZWOPER) training sessions
- D. Initial training with annual refresher sessions

06

What is the primary purpose of the Hazard Communication Standard (HCS)?

- A. To ensure chemical manufacturers provide detailed financial reports
- B. To ensure that all chemicals are banned from the workplace
- C. To ensure that the hazards of all chemicals produced or imported are classified and that information concerning the classified hazards is communicated to employers and employees
- D. To monitor the import and export of chemicals ledger and experience meeting regulatory specifications

07

A manifest serves the following purposes:

- A. It is a shipping document for hazardous wastes
- B. It is a tracking document for hazardous wastes
- C. It is a certificate of destruction for hazardous wastes
- D. Both A and B

08

In the RCRA program, UTS refers to:

- A. Underlying treatment standards
- B. Universal treatment standards
- C. Universal technology standards
- D. Universal technical standards

09

Maximum contaminant levels (MCL's) are regulatory thresholds for:

A. Effluent quality under the Clean Water Act

B. Air emissions under the Clean Air Act

C. Heavy metal contamination under RCRA

D. Allowable drinking water pollutant concentrations
under the Safe Drinking Water Act

10

Under the citizen suit provisions of RCRA, citizens are directly allowed to:

A. Sue for punitive damages

B. File suit in federal district court to enforce RCRA waste management regulations

C. Intervene in the siting of new treatment, storage, and disposal (TSD) facilities

D. Both 1 and 3

11

What is the main purpose of environmental impact assessments?

- A. To determine the impact of a proposed project on the environment
- B. To evaluate the economic benefits of a proposed project
- C. To assess the impact of a proposed project on human health
- D. To determine the impact of a proposed project on the local community

12

Which physical hazard pictogram is also known as the oxidizer pictogram?

A. The exploding bomb pictogram

B. The flame over circle pictogram

C. The flame pictogram

D. The large OX pictogram

