

Ch-32 Site Security &
Ch-39 Emergency
Management
Homework Answers

01

Identify which element is NOT part of a disaster preparedness plan:

A. Mock regulatory inspection

B. Evacuation procedures and medical response

C. Spill prevention, control, and response

D. Crisis communication system

02

Workers should receive training on which of the following components regarding workplace violence?

- A. Relevant policies, locations of physical defense equipment, self-defense behaviors and how to help during emergencies
- B. Relevant policies, diffusing difficult situations, location of attack alarms and how to respond to attacks
- C. Relevant policies and the local laws and requirements of civil order (police, military, or civil patrol)
- D. Relevant policies, security equipment, diffusion of threatening situations and how to summon help

03

Which of the following will BEST help secure a facility from unauthorized access?

A. Armed guards, Warning signs, and wire-embedded windows.

B. Fencing, Bright Lights, and Security Cameras

C. Attack Dogs, Robots, and Light Curtains

D. Drones, Smoke flares, and Camouflage.

04

Which of the following is a common early warning sign of potential violent behavior?

A. Occasional disagreements with peers.

B. Regular participation in group activities.

C. Increased isolation and withdrawal from social situations.

D. Meeting deadlines promptly.

05

Which workers are MOST at risk from violence at work?

A. Drivers

B. Clerks

C. Police officers

D. Doctors

06

What is the primary objective of violence prevention programs in the workplace?

- A. Eliminating all forms of conflict
- B. Punishing employees who engage in violent behavior
- C. Minimizing and preventing incidents of workplace violence
- D. Promoting physical confrontations to resolve disputes

07

4000 gallons of gasoline was spilled from a tanker truck and flowed into the local river. Which person is responsible for the ongoing emergency response?

A. Safety Officer

B. Environmental Officer

C. Plant Manager

D. Incident Commander

08

What is the primary goal of emergency preparedness management?

A. To encourage a secure and resilient community.

B. Minimize the impact of emergencies on people and property

C. To preserve property and profits during emergencies

D. To illustrate human error, deliberate destruction, and building or equipment failures that will occur during an emergency.

09

Which elements should be included as common components in an emergency response plan?

- A. A written plan, an identified chain of command, an emergency response team, training, medical assistance provision, and personal protective equipment
- B. A public relations spokesperson, company officer, emergency transportation vehicles, and legal representation
- C. Fire-fighting equipment, a chemical spill cleanup kit, trained medical professionals, dedicated communication equipment, and evacuation equipment
- D. Food, water, extra clothing, and accommodations for evacuees

10

You happen to be in the building at the time of an industrial fire emergency. The fire department has been notified, the building alarm has activated, and you are attempting to extinguish the incipient fire with a nearby 20-pound dry chemical fire extinguisher in accordance with your training. You are unsuccessful. You should:

A. Evacuate and await the fire department

- B. Search for another fire extinguisher and make another attempt to extinguish the fire to provide time for the fire department to arrive
- C. Remain near the fire to prevent evacuating people from inadvertently entering the danger area
- D. Enter the fire and smoke area to search for trapped people

11

Two police officers enter your hard hat only site on a non-emergency basis. What would you do?

- A. Have security escort them out of the site.
- B. Ask them to wear the visitor hard hats and sign in at the general contractor trailer for site meeting.
- C. Refuse entry to the policemen.
- D. Tell them to return to their police station and get hard hats.

12

A recently terminated employee has been sending hostile and vaguely threatening emails to your team, expressing anger over the termination. The emails suggest he might do something to "make everyone understand" his situation. How should your team respond?

- A. Reply to his emails, trying to calm him down and explain the reasons for his termination more clearly.
- B. Report the emails to your security department and human resources as soon as possible.
- C. Ignore the emails, assuming he will cool down eventually.
- D. Send the emails to other coworkers to warn them and gather their opinions on what to do next.